

Learning Topic: Introduce Yourself

Teacher: John Smith

Situation 1: Introducing Yourself to a New Classmate

Student A: Hi, I'm Alex. What's your name?

Student B: Hello, Alex. I'm Mia. Nice to meet you.

Student A: Nice to meet you too, Mia. Where are you from?

Student B: I'm from Canada. How about you?

Student A: I'm from Australia.

Situation 2: Introducing Yourself in a Job Interview

Interviewer: Can you tell me about yourself?

Applicant: Of course! My name is Sarah. I recently graduated with a degree in Marketing, and I'm passionate about creating impactful campaigns.

Situation 3: Introducing Yourself at a Party

Person A: Hi there! I don't think we've met. I'm David.

Person B: Hi, David. I'm Emily. Nice to meet you. Are you a friend of the host?

Person A: Yes, we went to college together.

Situation 4: Introducing Yourself on the First Day of Class

Teacher: Good morning, everyone! Let's begin by introducing ourselves. I'll start. My name is Mr. Brown, and I'll be your English teacher this year. Now, how about you?

Student: Hi, I'm Jake. I love playing basketball and learning new languages.